WHEREAS, in Quezon City, there were more or less seven hundred seventy-six (776) drug offenders who were given a respite in jail through the plea bargaining agreement;

WHEREAS, the District Investigation and Detective Management Division, Quezon City Police District, the division tasked to look into the dismissed drug-related cases, and the Quezon City Anti-Drug Abuse Advisory Council (QCADAAC) found out that there were certain drug offenders who have availed of the plea bargaining in two (2) or more drug-related cases from different Regional Trial Courts;

WHEREAS, the primary responsibility of the State is to maintain law and order so that citizens can enjoy peace and security. The State discharges the obligation to protect life and liberty of the citizens by taking suitable preventive and punitive measures by following fair trial and if found guilty, to punish the offender;

WHEREAS, there are undeniably benefits of plea bargaining, it reduces costs, brings cases to a speedy conclusion, reduces the backlog of cases, helps to bring those guilty of crimes to justice and decongest the over-populated jails. However, despite these benefits, the elephant in the room still remains. The thrust of the present administration is to curtail drug addiction in the country, in as much as the local government of Quezon City and with the said findings of local authorities, where drug suspects/pushers continued their trade by virtue of the plea bargain, preventive actions and perseverance will be left inutile. We trust in a system which protects the innocent and punishes the guilty.

NOW, THEREFORE,

BE IT RESOLVED BY THE CITY COUNCIL OF QUEZON CITY IN REGULAR SESSION ASSEMBLED, to entreat, as it does hereby entreats, the Supreme Court of the Philippines to revisit Administrative Matter No. 18-03-16-SC and its implication on illegal drug-related cases.
