PERSONS WITH DISABILITY AFFAIRS OFFICE

VISION

A City for every resident, including persons with disability where everyone is treated according to ability and not disability, and are viewed and valued not just as receiver of welfare service but as contributing partners, living freely and independently, benefiting from the fruits of the collective toils of the citizenry. A city where PWDs are rehabilitated, developed and integrated into the social fabric of life.

MISSION

To implement programs and services that would introduce needs-based and community-based approaches that will be more responsive to persons with disability residents of Quezon City in line with the inclusive development and good governance agenda of the City Government.

JOINT DTI-DA ADMINISTRATIVE
ORDER NO. 02 Series of 2008

SUBJECT:

Implementing Rules and Regulations on the Grant of Special Discounts to Persons with Disability on the Purchase of Basic Necessities and Prime Commodities pursuant to Section 32 (j) of R.A. No. 9442, otherwise known as the Magna Carta for Disabled Persons and for Other Purposes.

WHEREAS, Republic Act (R.A.) No. 9442 also known as the Magna Carta for Disabled Persons and for Other Purposes was signed into law on 30 April 2007 by President Gloria Macapagal-Arroyo amending R.A. No. 7277 and granting other privileges and incentives to persons with disability;

WHEREAS, Section 32 (j) of R.A. No. 9442 provides that "to the extent possible, the government may grant special discounts in special programs for persons with disability on purchase of basic commodities, subject to the guidelines to be issued for the purpose by the Department of Trade and Industry (DTI) and the Department of Agriculture (DA)."

NOW THEREFORE, WE PETER B. FAVILA, Secretary of the Department of Trade and Industry (DTI) and ARTHUR C. YAP, Secretary of the Department of Agriculture (DA), in accordance with Section 32 (j) of R.A. 9442 and Section 6, 9 of its implementing rules and regulations (IRR), otherwise known as Magna Carta for Disabled Persons and for Other Purposes, do hereby issue the Order providing special discounts to person with disability on the purchase of basic necessities and prime commodities under DTI and DA jurisdictions:

Section 1. Scope and Coverage – This Order shall apply to persons with disability who are Filipino citizens, and retailers as defined under Section 2 (c) hereof.

Section 2. Definition of Terms – For purposes of this Order, these terms as defined are as follows:

(a.) "Basic Necessities" – refers to rice, corn, bread, fresh, dried and canned fish and other marine products, fresh pork, beef and poultry meat, fresh eggs, fresh and processed milk, infant formulas, fresh vegetables, root crops, sugar cooking oil, salt, laundry soap, detergents, firewood, charcoal, candies, and other commodities as may be classified by the DTI and the DA.

(b.) "Prime Commodities" – refers to fresh fruits, flour, dried, processed and canned pork, beef and poultry, meat, dairy products not falling under basic necessities, noodles, onions, garlic, diapers, herbicides, poultry, swine and cattle feeds, veterinary products for poultry, swine and cattle, paper, school supplies, nipa shingle, plywood, construction nails, batteries, electrical supplies, light bulbs, steel wire and other commodities that may be classified by the Department of Trade and Industry (DTI) and the Department of Agriculture (DA).

(c.) "Retailer" shall mean any natural or juridical person engaged in the business of selling consumer products directly to consumers, which shall include among others, supermarkets, grocery stores, convenience and mini-convenience stores and shops, excluding fast-food stores with a capitalization of less than One Hundred Thousand Pesos (PHP 100,000.00), public and private wet markets, "talipapa" and cooperative stores;

(d.) "Persons with Disability" shall refer to any person suffering from restriction or different abilities, as a result of mental, physical and sensory impairment to perform an activity in a manner or within the range considered normal for human being. Disability shall mean (1) a physical or mental impairment that sustainability limits one or more psychological, or anatomical function of an individual or activities of such individuals; (2) a record of such impairment; or (3) being regarded as having such impairment.

Section 3. Discount – every person with disability shall enjoy a special discount of five percent (5%) of the regular retail price of basic necessities and prime commodities listed under Section 2 (a) and (b) of this Order. The total amount of said purchase shall not exceed the amount of One Thousand Three Hundred Pesos (PHP 1,300.00) per calendar week without carry over of the unused amount. Provided, that said amount shall be spent on items listed under Section 2 (a) and (b) of this Order commensurate to his/her personal and exclusive consumption and/or enjoyment within the calendar week.

Section 4. Valid Identification Documents – To avail of the discount, a person with disability must present his/her identification card issued by the National Council on Disability Affairs (NCDA) or by the authorized office of the Local Government Units (LGUs) where he/she resides. The procedure for the issuance of identification cards shall be on accordance with NCDA Administrative Order No. 001, Series of 2008, issued on 23 April 2008, and other relevant issuances.

In the event that the retailer has reasonable doubt as to the identity of a person with disability availing of such special discount, the retailer may request the former to present any other government identification document, whether nationally or locally issued.

Section 5. Purchase of Booklet – A purchase of booklet shall be presented to the retailer every time a purchase of basic necessities and prime commodities is made. The purchase booklet shall conform to the attached template (Annex "A") jointly purchase by DTI and DA. The LGU's shall procure and distribute the purchase booklets to the persons with disability residing within their respective territorial jurisdiction.

The purchase booklet shall contain the name of the person with disability, list of basic necessities and prime commodities under Section 2 (a) and (b) of this Order. In addition it shall provide columns for the name of the retail establishment and their address, date of purchase and the amount of purchase thereof.

Section 6. Special Lane – retailers shall provide a special express lane for persons with disability, in the absence thereof, priority shall be given to them.

Section 7. Prohibition on Availment on Double Discounts – The privilege herein granted shall not be claimed if the person with disability claims a higher discount as may be granted by the retail establishment and/or other existing laws or in combination with other discount program such as those extended to senior citizens.

Section 8. Authorize Representatives – A person with disability who cannot personally purchase basic necessities and prime commodities under Section 2 (a) and (b) of this Order may, by written authority, appoint a representative to transact with a retailer on his/her behalf. The authorized representative shall be required to present a valid government issued identification document together with the LGU – issued identification issued document of the concerned person with disability and an authorization letter.

However, for those who cannot possibly purchase basic commodities under Section 2 (a) and (b) of this Order because of his/her disability, a permanent representative within the immediate family or the legal guardian, as the case may be shall automatically be considered even without the aforesaid written authorization; Provided that the name of the authorized person's shall be indicated in the purchase booklet or in the identification card that will be issued to the person with disability.

Section 9. Penal and Administrative Sanctions – Penal and administrative sanctions are those which are provided under R.A. No. 9442

Section 10. Effectivity – This Order shall take effect fifteen (15) days after its publication in a national newspaper of general circulation.

Issued this 15 day of December 2008 in Makati City, Philippines.
